Hongkong, August 5th, 1878.

It is a subject of much congratulation that the important questions which arose out of the celebrated Kwon-A-sing trial were taken before the Privy Council for decision, as the appeal has resulted in a very valuable guide being afforded to the Colony with respect to future extradition cases, and the Lords of the Privy Council have very clearly expressed their dissent from any stretching of the law the coolie traffic, slave ships, &c., &c. The well-known cautiousness of Appeal Courts in commenting on the language of the judges definite statement as to its having been wrong that Kwok-A-sing should have been allowed to go without being tried for piracy jure without taking this fact into account; and entirely disapproved of.

application for Kwok-A-sing's rendition was l made by the Chinese Government under charged with piracy jure gentium, which was the 21st article of the Tientsin Treaty, the nature of the crime alleged, and for which for committing crimes against the laws he ought to have been tried before a jury in of China by seizing the Nouvelle Penelope Hongkong. at sea, and murdering the captain It is perhaps needless to point out that the and certain of the crew, and afterwards judgment of the Privy Council necessarily seizing a boat belonging to the ship and shows that the claim for £500 aga ist the landing on Chinese territory. On sequently one which a person occupying so this, as will be romembered, he was discharged, high a position as that of CHEF-JUSTICE, the CHIEF-JUSTICE giving his opinion that should use his great influence to put down, the depositions disclosed no offence whatever rather than to encourage—that an official on the part of Kwok-A-sing, and that he was occupying an important public post should be was the defendant. He saw the defendant at labor. justified in killing the captain to regain his sued on a quasi criminal charge. liberty. The Acting French Consul, M. CH. L. DE LA FOREST, also claimed Kwok-A-SING to be rendered up, on a charge of murdering Captain Le Vicourrus, of the Nouvelie Penelope, but as it was evident that, had this rendition been granted, another writ of a German bark, an English schooner, and a Habeas Corpus would have been issued by the due here twelve days ago from Newchwang, balls of Malwa oplum. He told the boat tendent of the Government Theil Homital. CHIEF-JUSTICE, and the proceedings rendered the second the John McKean, which left this abortive, he abandoved the application. Upon this, the ATTORNEY-GENERAL, in order to prevent justice being defeated, had Kwok-A-sing arrested on a charge of piracy jure gentium, and the prisoner was brought up before Mr. May, and after the ovidence had been taken de nove, he was committed of piracy jure gentium. After he was thus tain six, $60, and the peices to be given will be ready for circula- jesty did feloniously steal, take, and carry away, tion for last year is computed at £3,830,000, for trial at the Supreme Court, on a charge down stairs, $10 in the circle, and boxes to concommitted for trial, a second writ of Habeas Corpus to discharge the prisoner was granted by the CHIEF-JUSTICE, and the prisoner was The unfortunate man, Ahmet, who was conset; at liberty on the ground that the offence charged in the second warrant of morning at a quarter after six o'clock. Up to second time for the same offence. Shortly seemed slightly to falter, but did not offer any after this, came the prosecution of the Ar-

the ATTORNEY-GENERAL. On the application of Kwok-A-sine's Attorney, the CHIEF JUSTICE at once granted a rule nisi for a new trial, and the ATTORNEY-GENERAL showed onuse against the rule—but judgment has not been delivered upon this.

The above resume of the facts connected with this extraordinary trial, compared with the Judgment of the Lords of the Trivy Council, recently published, will make clear to our readers the extent to which that judgment goes counter to the action which Chief-Justice SMALE took in the matter. They uphold his action in discharging KWOK-A-SING on the first writ of Habeas Corpus, because they hold that his offence. and that, therefore, the Magistrate was mistaken in committing him on the application of the Chinese authorities; but in stating this, they are careful to note, although they say it is unnecessary for them by a very praiseworthy and gallant effort, to enter on the point, that they dissent from the other grounds taken by the CHIEF. Justice as to the vessel being a slaver, and Kwok-A-sing justified in killing the captain to regain his liberty. They say: "Having come to this conclusion, their lordships need not give any opinion upon the validity of the other grounds on which the CHIEF-JUSTICE thought Kwok-A-SING ought, on the first occasion, to be dis charged. They think, however, it is right to state they do not agree with the CHIEF-JUSTICE that the evidence before him proved that La Nouvelle Penelope was a slave ship, instant, in his house. and that Kwox-A-sing, and the other coolies who acted with him, were justified in killing the purpose of obtaining their liberty."

The fact that the Judges went out of their way to make this statement, shows that they

ruling, as was then made, for the future. As respects the CHIEF-JUSTICE'S ruling on discharging Kwok-A-sine the second time he was brought up before him, that is, on Habeas Corpus on his being committed for trial on a charge of piracy jure gentium, the Blair, with refusing to pay chair hire, alleging his hat on top to keep it dry. He was in the loft was closed by a curtain over a doorway. action of the CHIEF-JUSTICE in condemned in toto: "He (Kwon-A-sing) was discharged" says the judgment, "solely on the ground that on station charge at No. 7 Station, who stated others with them. One of the defendants he had been committed a second time for the same offence, contrary to the 10th section of the 31st Charles II., Cap. 2." They cannot agree "with the construction which the CHIEF-JUSTICE has put upont his section of the | 35, in default, 14 days' hard labour, for giving and snatching the bag of letters and money. statute. The principal object of the section seems to be to prevent persons who have been brought up on a writ of Habeas Corpus, and discharged on giving bail, and entering on their own recognisances, from being again arrested for the same offence, and obliged to suc out a second time a writ of Habeas Corpus." They go on to say, they think the act can only apply when arrest is substantially for the same offence as the first, so that the return to the second writ of Habeas Corpus raisse for the opinion of the Court the same ground of detention as the first. The second warrant on which Kwok-A-sing was committed to take his trial for piracy jure gentium was a valid warrant, and the judgment tersely concludes that "their lordships think he ought not to have been discharged from his custody under that valid warrant, because he had imprisonment." Nothing could be clearer or more in accordance with common sense. The Magisin favour of individual crinions regarding trate, in committing Kwok-A-Sing to be given up to the Chinese authorities, committed technical error-the fact being that the wrong charge had been brought against the prifrom whom an appeal is made, makes the soner; but this was no reason, if he was after discharged on Habeas Corpus on account of this technical flaw, re-arrested, that he should be again discharged on a writ of gentium, more significant than would appear | Habeas Corpus, when he had been rightly committed. It is true both committals arose there can be no doubt that the proceedings of out of the same set of circumstances, but, in the CHIEF-JUSTICE on the point have been the one case Kwok-A-sing was charged with Our readers will recollect that the first which was not the nature of the crime for

THE GENEVA AWARD. The appropriement is made from Washing ton that Her Majesty's Government has made an arrangement through the Bank of Hugland with its American correspondents, to deliver to the Secretary of State in Washington on or before September 13th $15,500,000, the sum payable under the Geneva award to the United States. - The money, it is udded, will probably be delivered on September 10th, three days befor the expiration of the limit fixed by the Treaty. As soon as it is paid over the Secretary, according to the terms of an Act of Congress passed at the last Session, will invest the Loan, and this Fund will remain in the Treasury with its accumulating interest, subject to the future disposition of Congress.

THE BANK NOTES BILL. The Chancellor of the Exchequer has a good apology to offer for submitting his Bank Notes Bill to the nation. The law on the subject, when eleared of technicalities, may be simply stated. The money of the country, which creditor is bound to receive in discharge of debta, consists of coined gold and Notes the latter being issued by a Ftate agency in Threadneedle-street, under a rule that for all Notes issued an equal amount of gold shall be kept in its coffers, subject to a deduction of fifteen millions which has been withdrawn from them and used by the State. All above fifteen millions must be represented by gold; but the issue to the extent of that sum rests on the responsibility of the nation, which has borrowed it and ower it. This is the rule prescribed by the Act of 1844, but its operation has been thrice suspended. In 1847, 1857, and 1866 the State agency was 'authorized by the Executive Goversionent to issue, on the credit of the State, Notes exceeding fifteen millions, and Executive Government were subsequently indemnified by Parliament for directing these violations of the law. No one can be thoroughly contented with periodical violations of a law, especially when he is told that what has happened before will most assuredly bappen again. There is a strong temptation to argue that such suspensions of the Aut of 1844 must be either inevitable or not inevitable. If they are not inevitable, they longht never to be allowed to occur ngain; if they are inevitable, it must be possible to determine beforehand the circumstances making them ne cessary, and it would be better to define these circumstances and add to the Statute Book a new law allowing the Executive Government to direct the suspension of the principal Act when these circumstances shall again recur. We shall then have that done legally and by virtue of a Statute which is now done illegally n violation of a Statute. Mr Lowe's Bill is an attempt to supply the demand contained in this reasoning. He would confer upon the Ministry by law the authority they have thrice assumed, and would thus remove from our future history the unpleasant appearance of an arbitrary supersession of law ouce in ten years. ### THE CHINESE QUESTION.

(Alta Valifornia, June 16th.) ELOQUENT SERMON BY REV. DR. A. L. STONE. Last evening the First Congregational Church was growed to overflowing. The announcement that the Rev. Dr. Stone, Pastor of the Church, would give a sermon on the Chinese Question, awakened considerable interest, and excited much enriosity. We need not make any comment. We give the sermon in full; it is able to speak for itself :

Lev. 19; 33, 34-" If a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not vow.him. " But the strayger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shall love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Ejypt; I am, the Lord your God." The breadth and humanity of this ancient ordinance for the Ismaelitish nation, considered on its own merits and without reference to its 'able and highly antritions food. It is not unauthor, are worthy of all admiration and honor. | usual in the Western parts of America, as, in-There was some danger that the chosen people deed, in all new woodland countries where they exalted in the sense of their divine colling, abound, to eat them occasionally. To control this natural perjudice. and prevent its expression in acts of cruckty and injustice, God issued the strong and explicit statuto which I have recited in your hearing. The legislation haid its grasp not only upon the outward conduct, but upon the feelings of the heart. It forbade all vexatious and oppressive measures on the part of the nation and individuals, and it inculented upon all a spirit of or 3 catties; sales to the extent of about 100 kindness and love. It strengthened its force by an appeal to the bitterness of their own experience in analien land, and the greatness of the deliverance wrought for them by Him who was not more their God than the common God and Father of the race. And this prevision stands not alone of its kind. It is supplemented and re-school by many a kindred voice from Heaven: "Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him !" "Thou shalt not oppress a stranger, for ye know the heart of a stranger!" " Love v therefore the stranger, for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.!" It cannot be alleged that the feeling of the divine heart thus exhibited, was a local and transient sentiment. The reasons for it yo as deep as the heart of universal humanity, and reach as high as the fatherhood and lordship of the Orestor and Ruler of All. It stands recorded in this early page of revelation, that it may govern the long success sions of kingdoms and peoples down the story of time. It will be well for us to carry the spirit of this ordinance into the discussion upon which we enternow, and suffer it to govern our conculsions.

THE TEXT BROUGHT HOME TO US. There has come practically before as of this community, a question of the treatment of an alien class of our population. In its large proportions the question is not a local one at all, and cannot be locally adjudicated. It has been taken up and passed upon by the supreme authority of the land, to which authority, whatever our private views and feelings may be, we owe allegiance. But as those who are geographically nearest the problem, who feel most sensibly the pressure of its conditions, and who are most immediately affected in our social and industrial interests by contact with this alien element, we are more concerned and absorbed in the discussion than any other portion of the American people. THIS IS NOT A CALIFORNIAN, BUT AN-AMERICAN QUESTION: In this special relation of ours to the subject we are in danger of taking narrow views of it Such views, just so far as they lack breadth, must lack soundness and completeness. We must remember that this is not a Californian question, but an American question. It will be an unwarrantable assumption for us to speak for the whole country. It is not for New York to say who shall land at Castis Garden, nor for San Francisco to say who shall have entrance at the Golden Gate. This grand set-portal is is not city property, like the entrance to a park -it belongs to the nation and the Coutivent What affects as, in this matter, has its weight, and ought to have, in settling the national policy; but there will be other weights to be cast also into the balances. If we would grasp the elements of a conclusion that shall stand as right and just in all impartial judgment, if we would not underlie the reprobation of our fellow-countrymen and of mankind, we mus consider the question, not in the narrow sectional view, but in the broad, national and philanthrophic view, as representatives of American civilization, and as advocates of the best human progress.

Under the first inquiry; we stand at the outset face to face with the great American idea of opening this free and broad land as a refuge and a shelter to all who would neek its shores. We have stood within our magnificent domain, and feeling that we had room enough for all. and that we possessed the happiest and freest LUNDON AND PHOVINCIAL MAKINE form of government of any nation on earth, we have said in the hearing of all the families of men, "Lift up your heads, oh ye gates, and he THE Undersigned having been appointed quarte pages. ye litted up ye asylum doors, that whoseever will may enter in!" Extracts. MY OHOIOE. BY JENNIE HARRISON. Yes: I know there are stains on my carpet-The traces of small, muddy boots; And I see your fair tapestry glowing All spotless, with blossoms and fraits! And I know that my walls are disfigured With prints of small fingers and hands; And I see that your own household whiteness nothing else which men so much covet every-All fresh in its purity stande. Yes, I know my "black walnut" is buttered, And dented by many small heels While your own poliched stairway, all perfeat,

Its smooth shining surface reveals And I know that my parlor is littered With many odd treasures and toys; While your own is in daintiest order, Unharmed by the presence of boys And I know that my room is invailed Quite boldly all hours of the day ; While you sit in your own unmalested, And dream the soft quiet away ! Yes, I know I bave jackets that wear out,

And buttons that never will stay While you can embroider at leisure. · And learn pretty arts of "crochet" And I know there are lessons in spelling. Which I must be patient to hear; While you may sit down to your novel,

Or turn the last magazine near. Yes, I know there are four little bedsteads Where I must stand watchful, each night; While you may go out in your carriage. And flash in your dresses so bright! Now, I think I'm a neat little woman-I like my house orderly, too; And I'm fond of all dainty belongings-

Yet I would not change places with you. No! keep your fair home, with its order, Its freedom from trouble and noise;" And keep your own fanciful teisure; But give me my four splendid boys! BATH BEAUTIES.

MUSIC IN AMERICA. You shall hear the sound of the piano in every cluster of three houses throughout the land, almost from ocean to ocean. And if there is anything in this world that is a luxury, wis an instrument of music. You cannot cat it; you cannot take it for medicine; you cannot sell it-generally; it has none of those oar marks which men attach to other property; and yet there is almost where. The carpenter, the blacksmith, the farmer, if he has a daughter, wants an instrument of music. And it has ceased to be considered extravagant. The statistics of the pinco-manufacturers of America (and back into the inland villages, go into some mid-county of the State of New York, and you shall find there rising before your sight, never heard of before, a factory of pinnes, that sells its hundreds and thousands of pinnos every year, though it would seem as though there were more thousands made in this city than could be bought by all the world nut together)—the statistics of the manufacturers of that one single item epitomise the extent of the home comfort and elegance to which the people of America have attained. It is remarkable.-From " Mother Earth's Biography," by Wallace Wood.
